ORGANIZATION AND PROCEDURE

1. The activities of the Career Service Committee here shown are supplemental to those previously reported in Tab A of the Committee's Progress Report, dated 22 January 1952.

2. Mr. Walter Reid Wolf, Deputy Director (Administration), became Chairman of the Committee when the resignation of General F. Trubee Davison, formerly Assistant Director for Personnel, became effective in April.

3. Mr. Sherman Kent, Assistant Director for Office of National Estimates, was unable to continue as an active member of the Committee and his place was taken in late January by Mr. Kingman Douglass, Assistant Director for Office of Current Intelligence.

5. The six Working Groups, SELECTION CRITERIA, EMPLOYEE RATING, CAREER BENEFITS, TRAINEES, EXTENSION TRAINING and ROTATION, whose composition and assignments were detailed in the Committee's Progress Report of 22 January have completed their studies and made their final reports. Two additional Working Groups were set up as follows and have also made their final reports:

a. Working Group on PERSONNEL DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM:

Problem:

To recommend how, within the framework of the Office Career Service Boards, the evaluation and appraisal of an employee can be integrated with the determination of a development program for that employee; to refine, in
